

Please don't let them do this. At least 2/3 of all the junk mail and nuisance phone calls come from people who do business with us in some way or are somehow affiliated with people who do. If I need anything I will call them. I have decided to do this starting today to ask them for my peace and privacy in my own home and office. I would also appreciate some help in the prevention of unwanted faxes.